in-Law Refuses to Talk.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Former President Zelaya of Nicaragua, if his extradition from Mexico is asked for, will be treated as any other foreign citizen in the latter republic, existing treaties between Mexico and Nicaragua and the Mexican laws on the subject being taken into careful consideration. This was the declaration of Senor De La Barra, ambassador from Mexico to the United States, who arrived here today on his return from his country.

New York, Jan. 9.—Laborers of the building department began yesterday to shovel back into the Ludlow street tunnel the sand removed in digging for the body of Isaac Finkelstein of 53 Ludlow street, who was smothered by a landslide in a burrow he was building, supposedly to rob the jewelry store of E. Zirinsky at Grand and Ludlow streets.

Must Have Had a Confederate.

The police and the officials of the building department are sure that the man had a helper, but they are equally sure that the being which existed between Mexico and the United States previous to the flight of President Zelaya from Nicaragua has taken place, according to Senor De La Barra. The two countries are as one, he asserted, in their desire to bring about in the wisest possible manner a resumption of peaceful conditions in the Central American republic and a situation which will mean safety and security to American and Mexican interests and subjects in that country.
